CybageKhushboo Announces Annual Scholarship Program for 2016-17

CybageKhushboo announced its Scholarship Program for the academic year 2016-2017 and felicitated its volunteers for their untiring efforts.

At an event held on May 17, 2016, CybageKhushboo announced its Scholarship Program for the academic year 2016-2017 and felicitated its volunteers for their untiring efforts.

On this occasion, Ritu Nathani, Trustee, CybageKhushboo, and Director, Cybage, said, "We believe that education is the only tool that can provide a level playing field to eventually bridge the disparities in our country. It was with this thought that we started our work back in 2009. Our aim is to constantly provide financial aid to economically deprived but promising students so that they can fulfill their educational aspirations and secure a bright future. Till last year, CybageKhushboo granted scholarships in Pune and Gandhinagar; however, this year, the city of Indore has been included to expand the reach of CybageKhushboo. We are looking forward to receiving maximum applications from Indore."

CybageKhushboo also felicitated its dedicated volunteers for their contribution towards their chosen initiatives, interviews, home visits, or mentoring of needy students. The following volunteers were given special recognition for their efforts on home visits and mentoring of students: Akshay T, Alka B, Amit Y, Ankita C, Charu R, Dharmendrasinh M, Hitesh N, Jayant K, Preeti T, Ravindra S, Rohit M, Ruchita D, Sabindra S, Amol J, Amol K, Jasbirkaur K, Pramod K, Rajanikaur A, Sachin K, Sandeep M, Sanket J, Sarfraj S, Steven F, Suhas K, Suhas S, Suyog S, Yogendrasinh R, Datta J, Vivek S, Padmaja P, Deepak J, and Prajakta A.

During this event, some of the volunteers also shared their experiences of home visits and mentoring of students. Ritu Nathani also appealed to Cybagians to spread the word about the CybageKhushboo scholarship program and thus, help more economically deprived and promising students to become beneficiaries.
